– CHAMBERS AND PARTNERS, 2023

Year of call: 1984
Appointed to silk: 2008
Degree: MA: Magdalene College, Cambridge
Languages: French (working knowledge)

Sir James Eadie KC is one of the UK's leading advocates, with a practice spanning public and regulatory, commercial, EU and international law.

The Lawyer's Litigation Tracker's analysis has found James to be the top-ranked barrister at the Bar since 2015, by volume of court appearances, undertaking twice the share of court work of any other ranked barristers.

James was appointed First Treasury Counsel in January 2009, breaking the tradition of appointing Junior Counsel to this role. He had previously been Junior Counsel to the Crown, Common Law (1997-2008); alongside a private commercial and regulatory practice.

In the profession, he is called the 'Treasury Devil'. As such, he is the KC to whom the Government turn first for their major pieces of advice and litigation.

He advises the Government across the entire range of Government activity – from terrorism to tax. He has acted in much of the major litigation brought against the Government (frequently in the Supreme Court and European Court of Human Rights).

He was named Human Rights and Public Law Silk of the Year at the Chambers UK Bar Awards 2017; and again in 2021. He has been regularly named in The Times Law 100 listing the most influential lawyers in Britain.

James has been listed by both of the leading Legal Directories, Legal 500 and Chambers UK, as one of the Stars of the Bar and consistently in the first tier of Public and Administrative, and Human Rights, KCs. He is also currently ranked for his expertise in Immigration, Indirect Tax, Data Protection and EU law.

Recent comments include:

- "Sir James is undoubtedly at the top of his game and is the go-to silk for the UK government. He is very impressive and commands the respect of the Supreme Court judges." - Legal 500, 2023
