- Acting for Libyan investment funds in a matter involving the application of sanctions regimes and Libyan public law.

Before coming to the Bar, Isabel worked as a caseworker for Justice Project Pakistan, providing pro bono representation to persons facing the death penalty in Pakistan. Isabel also taught jurisprudence and property law at the University of Glasgow and equity and trusts and contract law at Birkbeck College, University of London. She was a legal panellist and contributor to Protecting Children in Armed Conflict (London: Hart Publishing, 2018). She is the author of Trials: On Death Row in Pakistan (London: Jonathan Cape, 2016) which won the Saltire Scottish First Book Award and was an Economist and Spectator book of the year.

Isabel is member of the Attorney General's panel of counsel (C panel).

EXPERIENCE

Public & Regulatory

Isabel has a broad public law practice. She regularly acts and advises (led and unled) for claimants and defendants in wide range of cases: from those engaging issues of international human rights law to commercial judicial review. Her clients include regulators, government departments, individuals, NGOs and companies. In addition to privately paid and publicly funded work, Isabel has a strong commitment to pro bono work.

She is ranked as a "leading junior (tier 4)" in Legal 500 (Administrative Law & Human Rights and Immigration), a "leading junior (tier 3)" in Legal 500 (International Human Rights and Criminal Law) and "band 4" in Chambers and Partners (Administrative & Public Law and Civil Liberties & Human Rights). She is a member of the Attorney General's C Panel of Counsel and she is a committee member of the Young Public Law Group.

"Isabel has good analytical skills. She has a good ability to navigate complex legal landscapes."

R (Vinter) v Secretary of State for Justice and R (Du) v Secretary of State for Justice

(High Court, 2016)

Acted for the Secretary of State in these cases challenging the Secretary of State's policy on release of prisoners with a whole life tariff or (as in Du's case) a tariff which is likely to extend beyond their lifetime on the basis of Article 5 of the ECHR. The cases follow the ECtHR's decision in Vinter v United Kingdom (2012) 55 EHRR 34 (assisting Ivan Hare who, in Vinter, appeared with James Eadie QC).

Tax judicial review

(March 2016)

Advised a potential claimant in a judicial review claim as to possible grounds of review and the merits of a claim against HMRC (assisting Ivan Hare).

R (Jordan Cunliffe) v Secretary of State for Justice

[2016] EWHC 984 (Admin)

Acted for the Secretary of State in a judicial review challenging the Secretary of State's policy of accepting the recommendation of a High Court judge in a detention at Her Majesty's Pleasure tariff review, the Secretary of State's decision not to allow the claimant to make submissions on the High Court judge's representation, the Secretary of State's refusal to review the High Court judge's decision not to disclose a victim impact statement (assisting Ivan Hare).

R (States of Guernsey) v (1) Secretary of State for the Environment, Food and Rural Affairs, and (2) the Marine Management Organisation

(High Court, 2016)

Acted for the Secretary of State in resisting an application for permission to proceed with judicial review challenging the Secretary of State's decision to temporarily suspend a fisheries management agreement with the States of Guernsey and to temporarily suspend licences issued to fishing vessels of the States of Guernsey (assisting James Segan).

R (Greenpeace) v Secretary of State for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs

[2016] EWHC 55 (Admin)

Acted for Defra in defence of a challenge by Greenpeace to the UK's allocation method for fishing quota and effort, on ground of alleged incompatibility with EU law (assisting James Segan).

The Claimant's brother, the Leader of the Indigenous People of Biafra, was a British citizen, detained in Nigeria. The Claimant brought a claim against the SSFCDA's approach to deciding whether to make representations to the Nigerian government about that detention.

Abdul Ridwan Ah Seek v State of Mauritius

Supreme Court of Mauritius, 4 October 2023

Constitutional challenge to criminalisation of homosexual conduct. Challenge upheld and criminalisation provisions struck down on grounds of discrimination. Assisting Tim Otty KC, counsel for the Claimant.

Working with the Human Dignity Trust

Ongoing

Working (pro bono) with the Human Dignity Trust, and in particular assisting counsel in foreign jurisdictions, on strategic litigation claims challenging laws that persecute people on the basis of their sexual orientation and/or gender identity.

Ukraine v Russia

App No 11055/22

Acting pro bono on behalf of Ukraine in an inter-state case before the ECtHR concerning the Ukrainian Government's allegations of "human rights violations committed by the Russian Federation in its military operations on the territory of Ukraine since 24 February 2022".

Advising individuals on application of Magnitsky sanction regime

2021-2022

Advising on the application of the UK's Magnitsky sanction regime; in particular on making submissions to the UK Government under that regime.

FF v SSHD (Prince Nasser Bin Hamad Al Khalifa of Bahrain named as Interested Party)

[2021] EWHC 2566; [2022] 1 WLR 2411

Acted for the claimant in a judicial review challenging the Home Secretary's decision (i) not to consider, and apply her "Exclusion from the UK" policy to, a dossier of material provided by the claimant in support of his request for exclusion of the interested party; and (ii) not to notify the claimant of whether a decision has been made and give reasons for that decision.

AAA and others v Petra Diamonds Ltd

2021

Acted for 71 Claimants in reaching settlement with Petra Diamonds Ltd. The Claimants alleged that they suffered serious human rights abuses at the Williamson Diamond Mine in Tanzania.

Advising Government Departments on ECHR compliance

2021

Advising Government Departments on the ECHR compliance of proposed legislation and policy.

Kate Wilson v The Commissioner of Police of the Metropolis

[2021] UKIPTrib IPT_11_167_H

Acted for the Claimant (with Charlotte Kilroy QC and Tom Lowenthal) in her successful claim against the Commissioner of Police of the Metropolis and the National Police Chiefs' Council. The Investigatory Powers Tribunal found that the police had breached Articles 3, 8, 10, 11 and 14 ECHR in deploying undercover police officers to spy on protest groups in the late 1990s and 2000s.

C3, C4, C7 v Secretary of State for the Home Department

March 2021

Acted for C4 in an appeal against the Secretary of State's decision to deprive C3, C4 and C7 of their British citizenship. Allowing their appeal, SIAC found that the decision to deprive C3, C4 and C7 of their citizenship breached s.40(4) of the British Nationality Act 1981 since a consequence of the decision would be to leave them stateless.

NG v SSHD

April 2021

Successfully acted (unled) for the appellant in an appeal against refusal of asylum.

PRCBC, A and O v SSHD

[2020] 1 WLR 1406; [2021] 1 WLR 3049; [2022] 2 WLR 343

March 2020

Providing advice to a foreign NGO on the rule of law and the right to property. With Jeffrey Jowell QC and Naina Patel.

Re: Al-M

[2019] EWHC 3415 (Fam); [2020] EWHC 67 (Fam); [2020] EWHC 122 (Fam); [2020] EWCA Civ 283

Acted (on issues related to international law and assurances) for Her Royal Highness Princess Haya bint Al Hussein (the “Mother”) in family law proceedings that concerned her, His Highness Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum (the “Father”) and their two children. The proceedings concerned a process of fact-finding and the application of international law relevant to assurances and human rights. By judgments published in March 2020, the High Court found that (i) the Father had been involved in the abduction of one of his daughters from the UK and the forcible return of another daughter to Dubai, and had conducted a campaign of harassment against the Mother; and (ii) no weight could be placed on assurances and waivers of immunity provided by the Father and the UAE. The Father appealed the decision to publish those judgments to the Court of Appeal, which dismissed the appeal. The Father was refused permission to appeal by the Supreme Court. Led by Timothy Otty QC.

LW and others v Sodexo and SSJ

[2019] EWHC 367 (Admin); [2019] 1 WLR 5654

Successfully acted (with Jason Pobjoy) for the claimants in a challenge to the SSJ's failure to put in place measures to ensure that prison officers in a contracted-out prison were adequately trained in the strip searching of female and transgender prisoners.

Judicial review claims relating to treatment of prisoners

(2019)

The cases follow the ECtHR's decision in Vinter v United Kingdom (2012) 55 EHRR 34 (assisting Ivan Hare who, in Vinter, appeared with James Eadie QC).

R (Jordan Cunliffe) v Secretary of State for Justice

[2016] EWHC 984 (Admin)

Acted for the Secretary of State in a judicial review challenging the Secretary of State's policy of accepting the recommendation of a High Court judge in a detention at Her Majesty's Pleasure tariff review, the Secretary of State's decision not to allow the claimant to make submissions on the High Court judge's representation, the Secretary of State's refusal to review the High Court judge's decision not to disclose a victim impact statement (assisting Ivan Hare).

EU & Competition

Isabel is presently acting in one of the largest domestic competition cases being litigated in the United Kingdom, representing Visa in defence of hundreds of competition damages claims alleging that multilateral interchange fees charged on the use of credit and debit cards breached EU and English competition law. Isabel also acts in matters in which issues of EU law arise, in a sanctions context or through the application of directives and the Charter of Fundamental Rights. And she is frequently instructed on judicial reviews that raise competition law issues and analysis.

She is ranked as "band 3" in Chambers and Partners (Competition) and a "rising star" in Legal 500 (Competition).

"She is bright, commercial and easy to work with."

— CHAMBERS AND PARTNERS, 2025

Application under ss. 790ZF and 790ZG of the Companies Act 2006

(May 2016)

Advising an applicant on the convention and charter rights potentially relevant to applications under ss. 790ZF and 790ZG (assisting Ivan Hare).

Fisheries regulation

(October 2015)

Advice to a commercial fishing company as to whether EU Regulation 404/2011 required the installation of a vessel monitoring system ("VMS") on-board their vessels and advice as to the merits of a potential judicial review claim challenging a government decision not to grant a licence to vessels without a VMS (assisting James Segan).

No-challenge clauses and settlement agreements

(November 2015)

Advice as to the treatment of no-challenge clauses under article 101(1) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union (assisting James Segan).

Public International Law

Isabel's public international law practice is centred on cases raising issues of international human rights and humanitarian law. Her clients range from individuals to NGOs, from companies to public bodies and governments. She frequently advises on and acts in cases that concern the application of international human rights law in both the UK and foreign jurisdictions, and the interaction between public international law and domestic law in this jurisdiction.

Isabel has also published in this area. She is the author of Trials: On Death Row in Pakistan (London, Jonathan Cape). And in 2018 she was a legal panellist and contributing author to Children in Armed Conflict (London, Hart) (of which she worked on four of the book's eight chapters). Prior to coming to the bar, Isabel spent several years working in Pakistan as a caseworker with local lawyers providing pro bono defence representation to death row inmates.

Cases

Abdul Ridwan Ah Seek v State of Mauritius

Supreme Court of Mauritius, 4 October 2023

Working with the Human Dignity Trust

Ongoing

Working (pro bono) with the Human Dignity Trust, and in particular assisting counsel in foreign jurisdictions, on strategic litigation claims challenging laws that persecute people on the basis of their sexual orientation and/or gender identity.

Ukraine v Russia

App No 11055/22

Acting pro bono on behalf of Ukraine in an inter-state case before the ECtHR concerning the Ukrainian Government's allegations of "human rights violations committed by the Russian Federation in its military operations on the territory of Ukraine since 24 February 2022".

AAA and others v Petra Diamonds Ltd

2021

Acted for 71 Claimants in reaching settlement with Petra Diamonds Ltd. The Claimants alleged that they suffered serious human rights abuses at the Williamson Diamond Mine in Tanzania.

C3, C4, C7 v Secretary of State for the Home Department

March 2021

Acted for C4 in an appeal against the Secretary of State's decision to deprive C3, C4 and C7 of their British citizenship. Allowing their appeal, SIAC found that the decision to deprive C3, C4 and C7 of their citizenship breached s.40(4) of the British Nationality Act 1981 since a consequence of the decision would be to leave them stateless.

Shagang Shipping Co Ltd v HNA Group Co Ltd

[2020] 1 WLR 3549

Acted for HNA Group (the Respondents to an appeal before the Supreme Court) in a claim under a guarantee relating to a charterparty which raised issues of torture and bribery. The Supreme Court held that in assessing the reliability of evidence, a Court should take into account any reasonable grounds for suspecting that such evidence was obtained by torture.

Re: Al-M

[2019] EWHC 3415 (Fam); [2020] EWHC 67 (Fam); [2020] EWHC 122 (Fam); [2020] EWCA Civ 283

Acted (on issues related to international law and assurances) for Her Royal Highness Princess Haya bint Al Hussein (the “Mother”) in family law proceedings that concerned her, His Highness Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum (the “Father”) and their two children. The proceedings concerned a process of fact-finding and the application of international law relevant to assurances and human rights. By judgments published in March 2020, the High Court found that (i) the Father had been involved in the abduction of one of his daughters from the UK and the forcible return of another daughter to Dubai, and had conducted a campaign of harassment against the Mother; and (ii) no weight could be placed on assurances and waivers of immunity provided by the Father and the UAE. The Father appealed the decision to publish those judgments to the Court of Appeal, which dismissed the appeal. The Father was refused permission to appeal by the Supreme Court. Led by Timothy Otty QC.
