Cases

[2024] UKUT 284 (TCC) and [2023] UKFTT 12 (TC)

Services were not supplied "on terms allowing a discount for prompt payment" in circumstances where the taxpayer received the full amount of the charges for a telecoms service, despite the customer being offered, in principle, a speedy payment discount. Kieron appeared for HMRC both before the First Tier Tribunal and in defending the appeal before the Upper Tribunal.

British Telecommunications plc v. HMRC

[2020] UKFTT 278 (TC); [2023] UKUT 122 (TCC)

The FTT struck out the appeal on issue estoppel and abuse of process grounds. BT's appeal against the decision to the Upper Tribunal was dismissed. The Court of Appeal refused BT permission to appeal. Kieron acted for HMRC.
