

Rowan Stennett

Year of call: 2022
Degree: BA Law (Cantab, Starred First Class), BCL (Oxon, Oxford-Finnis Scholar), BVS (ICCA, Distinction)

Rowan joined Chambers in September 2023 following the successful completion of pupillage. He accepts instructions in all of Chambers' practice areas. Recent highlights of Rowan's experience include assistance with the following cases:

- the landmark inter-State case brought by Ukraine against Russia concerning allegations of human rights violations committed on Ukrainian territory since 24 February 2022;
- proceedings in the Court of Appeal concerning the compatibility of the Diplomatic Privileges Act 1964 and Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations with Article 3 of the ECHR;
- the phone hacking litigation brought by the Duke of Sussex and other claimants against the Mirror Group, alleging various forms of unlawful information gathering across more than three decades;
- proceedings brought by the Premier League against Everton Football Club alleging a breach of the Premier League's Profit and Sustainability (FFP) Rules;
- the Umbrella Interchange Fee proceedings, in which the Competition Appeal Tribunal considered the impact of a judgment of the CJEU which post-dated IP completion date on ongoing competition claims brought against VISA.

Before coming to the Bar, Rowan worked as a Judicial Assistant in the Court of Appeal, assisting Dingemans LJ on a number of high-profile appeals. He developed particular expertise in public law, human rights, and EU law by working on the appeals in Hogue and ors v SSHD [2020] 4 WLR 154, XXX v Camden LBC [2020] 4 WLR 165, Fratila v SSWP [2021] 3 All ER 1043, Tavistock v Bell [2021] 1 All ER 416, and Privacy International v SSFCA [2021] QB 1087.

Previously, Rowan was a Summer Fellow at the Bingham Centre for the Rule of Law. He worked in a team considering the legal governance and data protection implications of 'contact tracing' technology being deployed internationally during the coronavirus pandemic. He also took part in research projects assessing the compatibility of the UK Internal Market Bill and the EU-UK Withdrawal Agreement with domestic and international law. Rowan's interest in EU and EU-relations law was developed by contributing to consultation submissions made to the Ministry of Justice concerning the courts' powers to depart from retained EU case law following Brexit.

Rowan has also spent time assisting on commercial and company law cases at Des Voeux Chambers in Hong Kong and has worked as a supervisor in law for four colleges at the University of Cambridge.
