“Tim is fantastic all round and a pleasure to work with. He is extremely hard-working and responsive, and very thorough in his legal analysis.”

— CHAMBERS AND PARTNERS, 2025

Year of call: 2017
Degree: BComm, LLB (First Class) (Melb), BCL (Dist) (Oxon)
Languages: Cantonese (working knowledge), Chinese (Mandarin) (working knowledge)

Tim's practice is focused on heavyweight commercial litigation and international arbitration. He is ranked as a Leading Junior in Commercial Litigation and Civil Fraud in Legal 500 and in Chambers & Partners.

He is regularly instructed in complex, multi-jurisdictional and high value commercial disputes, which often involves allegations of fraudulent wrongdoing, raises issues of private international law or requires applications for urgent injunctive relief. Tim has particular experience of, and interest in, acting for or against sovereign states and their various emanations. He has been involved in cases before the courts of the Cayman Islands, the British Virgin Islands, Bermuda, Dubai, Hong Kong, Singapore and Australia. His arbitration experience includes proceedings under the LCIA, ICC, DIFC, HKIAC and SIAC Rules.

Tim has been instructed in one or more of the cases featured in The Lawyer's Top 20 Cases for each of 2017-2024. Tim's recent instructions include:

- Crane Bank v dfcu Limited. This is an unlawful means conspiracy claim brought by one of the richest individuals in Africa in relation to the takeover by the Central Bank of Uganda of a bank in which he previously held a significant shareholding. The claim raises issues of sovereign immunity and the foreign act of state doctrine, and is brought against 15 defendants including the sovereign wealth funds of several European countries. A 12-week trial is listed for 2026 (led by Robert Howe KC).
- Viva Wallet EUR 5 billion shareholder dispute. This is a EUR5 billion dispute between the two shareholders, JP Morgan and WEREALIZE, of Europe's first and largest neobank, Viva Wallet. The dispute raises complex issues relating to US banking law and the approach to the proper valuation of a call option in the shareholders' agreement. This dispute resulted in an expedited Commercial Court trial and an appeal is outstanding (led by Richard Lissack KC and Robert Weekes KC).

Before coming to the Bar, Tim was Associate to the Hon. Justice Susan Kiefel AC, then Chief Justice of the High Court of Australia.

EXPERIENCE

Commercial

Tim acts in a broad range of commercial disputes both in the civil courts and by way of arbitration. He is currently instructed on several high-value multi-jurisdictional commercial disputes involving allegations of fraudulent wrongdoing and unlawful means conspiracy. His work involves acting for multinational clients and sovereign states across different industry sectors.

“Tim is exceptionally personable, hard-working, able, and intelligent. A perfect junior for a difficult case. His written advocacy is outstandingly crisp and clear and his oral advocacy punches years above his call – he is on a par with some junior silks.”
